Accident on the South Park.

DENVER, May 18.—The Times has the following: "This morning as the Leadville express due in this city this morning was rounding a curve near Znesburg 25 miles from Denver the engine struck a pine knot and was thrown from the track into the river. The engineer escaped unhurt, but the fireman Mack Wilson was killed. No one else was hurt.

GENERAL NEWS.

Washington News.

JUDGE BELFORD MAKES AN IMPRESSION.

WASHINGTON, May 18.—While the agricultural appropriation bill was under consideration in the house to-day, the chairman of the public lands committee at the instance of Representative Belford offered an amendment appropriating twenty thousand dollars to enable the commissioner of the agricultural department to sink two experimental artesian wells in Colorado east of the Rockies. Mr. Sparks, of Illinois, raised the point of order, that it was not germaine to the bill, but the chairman of the committee of the whole, Mr. Hooker, of Mississippi, overruled the point of order. Judge Belford then took the floor and characterized Sparks' opposition a small business. He said he (Belford) had yesterday supported a bill appropriating nine millions to improve the eastern rivers and harbors, and now when the west comes forward and asked for only a few thousand dollars to demonstrate the existence of water in its arid regions, that gentleman rose in his place and objected.

Hutchins, of New York asked Belford where he found any warrant in the constitution for such an appropriation, whereupon Judge Belford walked rapidly down the aisle and crossing the space in front of the speaker's table towards the democratic side, replied, with characteristic enthusiasm, that he found the warrant in the fact that the government owned this land and that it was its solemn duty to make it fit for human habitation. He immediately added good humoredly, but with great earnestness, no honest man can object to such an appropriation. This elicited laughs and applause on both sides of the house. Pending further debate the committee of the whole rose in pursuance of the previous order, but it is believed the amendment will be adopted to-morrow.

NECESSITY OF ACTION ON THE BILL.

General Charles Adams, who has just returned from Colorado, says there are now waiting on the borders of the Ute reservation at least 1,000 wagon loads of emigrants who have come thither from Missouri, Kansas, Iowa and Illinois, expecting to make their homes and put crops in this summer in the Uncompahgre valley. Many of them are already destitute of provisions and a threatening state of affairs exists, not only on this account, but also by reason of the growing feeling among the Indians that have been cheated by being brought to Washington to sign an agreement which has not been ratified.

Senator Hill called with General Adams on the president and Secretary Schurz to day. They were assured that the administration is deeply impressed with the necessity of speedy action by congress to pass the pending bill to ratify the Ute agreement.

KEY'S SUCCESSOR.

The president has notified his cabinet that he has decided to appoint Horace Maynard, minister to Constantinople, to succeed Mr. Key as postmaster general.

QUESTION OF ADJOURNMENT.

The senate did not act on the adjournment question. The resolution is drawn like a joint resolution. It should be a concurrent resolution and this error may send it back to the house and re-open the question there.

WASHBURNE WITHDRAWS.

NEW YORK, May 18. The following letter is published here:

PORTLAND, ME., May 17.

To E. H. McClelland, Galena,—

I am too unwell to attend to anything, but express to all of my friends my earnest hope that they will support General Grant.

Signed. E. B. WASHBURNE.

A SLAP AT JUDGE FIELD.

NEW YORK, May 18.—The Sun prints this double leaded from the Springfield Republican: "Associate Justice Field says it was only a formal note which he sent to the Sheppard banquet. An associate justice of the federal supreme court ought to be in a position where not even a formal invitation to do honor to a public plunderer would be sent him.

CALIFORNIA WORKINGMEN'S CONVENTION.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 18.—The time of the workingmen's convention this morning was taken up by wrangling over the question of appointing delegates to the national greenback labor convention without reaching any result. In the afternoon the committee on platform reported resolutions and constitution. The platform is anti-Chinese, anti-subsidy, anti-national banks and monopoly, and favoring greenbacks, government control of corporations, female enfranchisement, compulsory education, creating by tax funds to be used in assisting heads of families in settling on public lands, and the election of president and vice president of the United States and postmasters by direct vote of the people. The constitution does not differ materially from the old one except in providing that in addition to the president, vice president, secretary and treasurer, the executive department of the party shall consist of one club president from each county. An additional resolution of sympathy with Kalloch and Kearney was adopted. A resolution declaring Allen G. Thurman the choice of the workingmen's party for president of the United States was adopted after a hot debate by a vote of 60 to 41. The opposition to the resolution was on the ground that it was impolitic to express any preference at present, and not because of objections to Thurman as a candidate.

THE CONTEST IN ILLINOIS.

SPRINGFIELD, May 18. The state central committee held a very harmonious meeting this evening with all the members present but two. It was decided that A. M. Jones, chairman of the committee should call the convention to order to-morrow and nominate as temporary chairman, Mr. Raum, commissioner of internal revenue. Resolutions were then unanimously adopted that none of the contesting delegates be admitted to the floor of the hall, but be given tickets to the galleries and tickets for the remaining seating capacity of the hall be equally divided among the members of the committee. It was also decided to depart from the usual programme on account of the contest in Cook county. Instead of calling the delegates together at 10 a. m. by congressional districts, as usual, to select district delegates and members of the different committees, all districts but the three which are in Cook county, will meet at 10 a. m. and select only their members of the committee on credentials. This plan gives satisfaction to everybody and no business will be transacted until the contest in Cook county is settled. If the usual plan had been adopted at first, three districts would not have been represented on the different committees until all their business was transacted. Under the programme adopted the convention will organize, the districts will report to the committee on credentials and a recess will probably be taken. After the report of the committee is presented and disposed of, another recess will be taken to allow the district to meet so that two days convention now seems inevitable. The fairness displayed by the Grant majority on the state central committee in making these arrangements indicates the convention will be harmonious.

The Blaine delegates and voters held a public meeting to night which was largely attended. It was decided to unite with Washburne in the convention and to demand the admission of the Farowell Hall delegates from Cook county. A committee was appointed to confer with a like committee for Washburne.

The Washburne delegates met at the same time. None but delegates and alternates were admitted. The Washburne men claim to have had eighty-five delegates present and that they have 110 in all. They decided to act with the Blaine men and appointed a conference. These committees met and reported to the meeting that they had agreed upon a plan for presenting the claim of the Farwell hall delegates to the convention and had appointed prominent men from different parts of the state to represent them on the floor of the caucus held to-night. Grant delegates from eighty five counties responded to the call. A dispatch from E. B. Washburne was received urging his friends to support General Grant.

MINNESOTA REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

ST. PAUL, May 18.—The state republican convention meets here to morrow. The candidacy of Senator Windom has given an unprecedented interest to the contest in the primaries. Of the whole number of delegates so far, 114 are instructed for Windom, 110 for Blaine, and 10 are scattering. It is thought when the convention meets again however, Windom will be the choice of a much larger number, and will be presented to the national convention almost unanimously as a candidate.

Startling Rumor.

NEW YORK, May 18.—There is a painful rumor on the street that the steamer Canada has been lost with all on board. There are two steamers of this name, one belonging to the National line, which left London May 1st, for New York, and the other belonging to the French line, which left here on the 14th for Havre. The rumor is not yet traceable and is given for what it is worth.

Musical Festival in Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, May 18.—The fourth musical festival began to-night. A financial success is assured. Sales of seats amount to $50,000. The chorus to-night numbered 02 and the orchestra 156. Miss A. L. Cary, M. Whitney, Campanini and other soloists received hearty applause. Theodore Thomas managed the orchestra.

Haverly's Courtesy.

CHICAGO, May 18.—Mr. J. H. Haverly, the enterprising amusement manager, has fitted up a commodious office in his theater here with full reporters outfit, for especial use of the newspaper correspondents and reporters from the various states of the union who attend the Chicago convention.

Whittaker Case.

WEST POINT, May 18. Whittaker was sharply questioned by Recorder Sears to-day on the points of his testimony which were conflicting. Professor Greener said he had suspicions as to the guilty person which he would submit to Whittaker's counsel, and he was instructed to draw up a statement and present it to Lieutenant Knight. The recorder said he had requested the war department to bring Professor Greener on a per diem so that Whittaker might have at least one friend here several days.

Interesting Wheat Statistics.

NEW YORK, May 18.—The Bulletin prints a table of the grain exports from the Atlantic and western ports, from which it compiles the following statistics for the month of April: Export of wheat from those ports, including flour reduced to wheat, was 14,114,843 bushels, against 9,383,170 bushels for the same month last year, so that notwithstanding the speculative check to shipments, the exports for last month exceeded those of April, 1879, by 2,731,465 bushels. Including the Pacific ports, the exports of wheat and flour from July 1st to May 1st, reaches 151,059,361 bushels, against 121,189,588 bushels for the same period of 1878 and 1879, an increase of 21.6 per cent, during these ten months. Western wheat has advanced to $1.25 per bushel against $1.07 for the same time in 1878 and 1879, showing an increase in price of 18 cents per bushel, while California wheat has averaged $1.15 per bushel against $1.03 for the preceding year.

Applying the same statistical method to flour we find that western flour has averaged $5.94 per barrel against $5.27 in the preceding year; an advance of 67 cents. The total value of exports of wheat from the United states for ten months amounts to the extraordinary figures of $185,732,576 against $132,250,887 for the corresponding months of 1878 and 1879. Compared with last year, which was one of unprecedented grain shipments, the value of wheat and flour exported during the last ten months exhibits an increase of $53,500,000. These facts are highly suggestive. They indicate the importance of the national reports, that may be expected in the event of an average harvest in Europe, and the very low prices for wheat that prevail under such circumstances, along with a surplus of over 100,000,000 bushels of wheat beyond the exports.

Still warlike.

PHILADELPHIA, May 18.—General Cellixto issued a proclamation to the people of Cuba, in which he denounces the Spaniards bitterly and advises that the hottest kind warfare against them be waged in behalf of all kinds of liberty. In an address to the army he calls them to arms, declaring his willingness to die with them, if necessary, and says there shall be no treaty not based on the recognition and independence of Cuba.

FOREIGN.

Reform in Turkey.

PARIS, May 18.—A dispatch stating that France will take the initiative in demanding from the porte acceptance of an international commission of supervisors and administration for Turkey, says the intention seems to be to devote the customs, port dues, tributes and all that can be immediately controlled to the normal administration and expenditures, thus saving it from the hands of pashas for centuries the vampires of the Mussulman countries.

Parnell Versus Shaw.

DUBLIN, May 18.—Parnell, chosen session chairman at the home rule meeting, suffered as a compromise between Wm. Shaw and himself that Justice McCarthy be chosen chairman. Wm. Shaw, speaking at the home rule conference at Dublin to-day, said if Parnell's policy on the land question was identical with the views he enunciated in America and Ireland, he (Shaw) would not remain a member of the party.

Ministerial Crisis in Vienna.

VIENNA, May 18.—The upper house reichstag adjourned this morning. The ministry will resign, but Count Taafe, the President of the council, will be intrusted with the reorganization of the cabinet and a coalition will be maintained.

Result of Italian Elections.

ROME, May 18.—Returns from 336 elections show the following results: Ministerialists elected 156, constitutionalists 117, and 63 members of the left. Returns show the left has lost 18 seats and gained 3. The internationalists lost 20 and gained 15, and the constitutionalists lost 5 and gained 25 seats.

REPUBLICAN CALL

HEADQUARTERS REPUBLICAN CENTRAL COMMITTEE
Denver Colorado April 22, 1880

At a meeting of the Republican State Central Committee held at this place Thursday April 22, it was ordered that a state republican convention be held on Tuesday the 25th day of May 1880 at ten a m at Denver, Colorado, for the purpose of choosing delegates to cast the vote of the state at the national republican convention, to meet in Chicago, June 3 1880

The republican committees of the various counties are therefore requested to make, as soon as practicable, provisions for the election of delegates to a republican state convention at the time and place above mentioned

Upon the basis of representation as fixed by the committee, the counties of the state are entitled to representation in the state convention as follows

Counties	Delegates	Counties	Delegates
Arapahoe	32	Huerfano	5
Bent	3	Jefferson	7
Boulder	13	Lake	34
Chaffee	9	La Plata	4
Clear Creek	15	Larimer	5

JOHN L ROUTT,
Chairman
HENRY WARD, Secretary,

A man can be great in Denver at an expense of $100

It is a fact worthy of remark that when democrats go to a republican caucus they vote the Grant ticket.

The Denver News favors the nomination by the democratic party of a New England man for president

If Arapahoe county sends anti Grant delegates to the state convention, the Grant party is probably beaten.

We advise all republicans to read the account of the Rio Grande convention given in a letter to the Denver Tribune. If the Grant party carry the convention, it will be through such tricky, dishonest methods

The Denver Republican thinks the Grant men are smart in stealing several delegates from the Maryland convention, though the convention had a large majority of Blaine men in it Well they were smart, but so is a bank-robber. But it is not the kind of smartness that any party can boast of, or win success by.

The opening of the story of "A man with a mine" in the Denver Inter Ocean is decidedly brilliant. The writer is Mr. O H. Rothacker, managing editor of the Denver Tribune His versatile talents would make him a success in any department of literature. We trust he will write all of the story

The fact that our exports no longer greatly exceed our imports is attracting considerable attention The cause of this is not that our exports have decreased but our imports increased For the twelve months ending March 31 1880 our exports were $779,075 833 or $58,701,370 greater than they were the year before Our imports however, for the same time were $584 61- 685 or 148,297 816 greater than the year before For the year ending March 31 1879 the exports exceeded the imports by $284 000 000 while for the year ending March 31 1880 the excess was only $195 000 000

The Result Thus Far

So far the anti Grant delegates in the state out number the Grant delegates The figures are as follows

ANTI-GRANT,

Boulder	13
Clear Creek	15
Gilpin	12
Grand	3
Weld	7
Total	50

[illegible] whose vote settles the status of the county convention, has gone anti-Grant. The Grant delegates are as follows

Conejos	6
Hinsdale	4
Lake	34
Rio Grande	4

Fremont's delegation will be split and there may be three or four anti Grant delegates from Lake. It will be seen by this that the thirty two votes of Arapahoe will decide the complexion of the state convention, Tribune of May 18.

It is to be hoped that the investigation now going on at West Point will arrive at decisive conclusions respecting the guilty parties in the Whittaker affair, so that there may not be any doubt remaining in the minds of anyone The sympathy for Whittaker has been general and sincere, and has injured West Point in the estimation of many people. If Whittaker has been a fraud in this matter as the testimony now indicates the world should know it, and West Point vindicated from unjust suspicions and charges

Brick Pomeroy is about to start a paper in Denver called the Great West We regret it because its advocacy of this country will probably do more harm than good Judging from the "Monte Christo" business it is likely to be a vehicle for advertising mining frauds Brick Pomeroy is hardly capable of conducting an honest, reliable paper

The Rio Grande Convention

DEL NORTE May 15 1880,
To the Editor of The Tribune.

The telegraph has announced to you that Rio Grande county sends an instructed Grant delegation to the republican state convention,

That your readers and the republicans of Colorado may know how this was accomplished in a Blaine county is the object of this letter

Prior to the meeting of the convention the admirers of both Blaine and Grant had made a thorough canvass of the white republican voters of the county which discloses the fact that the Blaine men were in the majority To overcome this majority certain of the Grant leaders hit upon the following plan which they proceeded to put in execution First to run in a very large Mexican vote, a thing unprecedented in a mass convention in this county, as this class of voters are known to be republican or democratic only as the money goes, and it is fair to presume that to earn money they attend the convention and the presumption is strengthened by the fact that they mostly voted with open tickets that their masters might know they were entitled to their reward

But what is more shameful on record than all this is that in order to insure the success of their nefarious scheme to defraud the party of its honest choice, the court room was crowded with democrats who came at the earnest solicitation of Grant men who called themselves republicans

Many of these democrats declined to take part in the shameful proceedings and refused to vote for Grant men under the thin pretext that if they had to name a preference for a republican president it would be for Grant Others claimed openly that they preferred Grant's nomination because in their opinion he would be the easiest man to beat by their own party Enough of these votes were cast to change the delegation in part at least even after admitting the challenge vote not known to be republican

These votes were challenged time and again by straight republicans, but the chairman of the convention being in the ring and a candidate, paid no attention to the matter

The success of this outrageous fraud can be summed up as follows

The Grant delegates from the ring one of whom says that his preference is for Blaine, but thinks Grant will be more apt to "get there" and he might have added, with a great deal of propriety, that if he supported the man he preferred, and was beaten, it might affect his supply of government pap, that he now finds so acceptable

One delegate, whose decided preference is for Blaine, and one who does not know his preference, as by representing himself a Blaine man to Blaine men, and as a Grant man to Grant men, he succeeded in getting his name on both tickets

After election, instructions were easy, as democrats could halloo as loud and their votes counted as much as a good republican's in this democratic Grant convention

Against these shameful proceedings some of Grant's warmest supporters were the most outspoken, and many of the democrats who at the time only looked upon the affair as a huge joke, now freely confess that they are ashamed for having mixed up in so disgraceful an affair.

No man who attended the convention will deny the truth of what is above written, not even the delegates sent from Rio Grande county and instructed for U S Grant who thinks more of the party than he does of any man in the party.

Sherman's Soundness

Secretary Sherman's bold and distinct declaration in favor of coining silver on a par with gold has even silenced the News, which for a day or two has had no reference to the "unlimited coinage of silver" The truth is all this bluster of the News about republican opposition to silver is only to cover up the meanness of the present congress in not giving our people a mint. This is one of the things that will come back to the democracy to injure it in the coming campaign, and the News is hedging, so to speak in order to make a good a showing as possible —Denver Times

THE COLORADO SPRINGS GAZETTE.

WEDNESDAY, MAY [illegible], 1880.

How the King Traveled in the Fourteenth Century.

The King and his nobles generally made their journeys on horseback, but they also possessed carriages. Nothing gives a better idea of the rude, cumbrous luxury which was at that time the boast of civil life than the structure of these heavy machines. The best of them had four wheels and three or four horses, harnessed in single file; one of them was ridden by a postillion armed with a whip with a short handle and several thongs. Solid beams rested on the axles, and a truck with a round top like a tunnel was placed upon this frame; the unsightly effect of the whole can be imagined, although there was extreme elegance in details. The wheels were overlaid with ornament, and the spokes, as they approached the outer rim, took the form of a pointed arch; the wooden sides of the carriage were painted and gilded, and the inside was hung with the beautiful tapestry so common in that age. The seats were covered with embroidered cushions, on which it was possible to take a half-reclining posture, there were pillows in the angles, as if to provoke sleep, and square windows [illegible] with curtains, pierced the sides of the carriages. It was thus that noble ladies traveled, their slender forms encased in tight dresses which showed all the movements of the body. The young nobles as closely confined in his saloon regarded his companion with a complacent air, and if of good breeding, he laid bare his heart to her in the long, involved phrases we find in the romance literature. The lady, who, perhaps, after the coquettish fashion denounced in satires of the day, has extracted her eyebrows and stray hairs, listens with open countenance and a smile which gleams like a ray of sunshine. But meanwhile the axles creak, the horses' hoofs grate upon the stones, the machine moves on in a series of jolts, sticking fast in the ruts or almost overturned in crossing a ditch, into which it falls back with a heavy thud. It is necessary to utter the long speeches from "Mort d'Arthur" in a loud voice, if they are to be heard. This trifling necessity suffices to destroy the charm of the finest sentiments; so many shocks affect the flower, and when presented by the knight, it has lost its rare perfume. The possession of such a vehicle was a princely luxury. It was bequeated by will, and was esteemed a valuable gift. On September 25, 1355, Elizabeth de Burgh, Lady Clare, wrote her last wishes and left to her eldest daughter, "son grant char ove les houces, tapets et quissyns," (her great coach, with its hangings and cushions.) In the twentieth year of the reign of Richard II., Roger Rouland received £400 for a carriage intended for Queen Isabella, and in the six year of Edward III.'s reign, Master la Zouche received £1,000 for the chariot of Queen Eleanor. Such sums were enormous, since in the fourteenth century the average price of an ox was 13s. 1½d., of a sheep 1s. 5d., and of a cow 9s. 5d., while a fowl cost a penny. Compare this with the price of Queen Eleanor's chariot.—New Quarterly Magazine.

Castelar at Home.

This being the day fixed for his reception at the Academy, I called upon him by appointment at his house before noon. I found him surrounded by a small circle of friends. His apartment is a small one, but it is full of art treasures presented to him by native and foreign artists of reputation. Among the numerous testimonials which attract the eye is the beautifully designed shield which was given to him by the officers of the royal artillery when, as president of the republic, he restored organization and discipline to the army, which had been ruined by federal excesses. His albums and library are equally interesting, for no work of interest is published, either in Europe or America, that he does not immediately send for. He is an early riser, being seldom in bed after six. He is frugal in his own expenditures, but generous and hospitable to his friends. On each Friday his rooms are thrown open to general visitors, and are frequented by men of all shades of political opinion and of all nationalities. The only exception he makes is that of the Intransigentes, whom he cannot speak of with patience and whom he charges with causing the irremediable failure of the Spanish revolution by their excesses. Dona Concha, his sister, who is older than himself and a most amiable woman, assists him in doing the honors of his modest home. It is maintained entirely by the proceeds of his literary labors, Castelar having no private fortune. This does not prevent him from being very liberal to public charities, as well as to his political friends. I have seldom seen him look so cheerful and animated as on this occasion. He said to me that few days of his political and literary career had given him so much pleasure as those he was then enjoying. He asked me if the Americans would be pleased at the allusions which he was about to make in his speech to Franklin, Lincoln and to their great writers, Longfellow, Emerson and others.—N. Y. Herald.

First of April at the Vatican.

The Romans have been playing practical jokes on His Holiness the Pope. As a satirically-inspired newspaper was going to press with its issue of the first of April a communication was received, ostensibly from the Vatican, and announcing many appointments of bishops and nuncios and promotions of prelates of lesser note. The document was on official paper and apparently signed and sealed by the usual authority. On the appearance of the journal next day there was "considerable of a shindy at the Vatican. The wag had carefully promoted persons who were especially distasteful to the Pope, and the latter felt horribly disgusted. As yet all efforts to find the perpetrator of the hoax have failed."

A Phenomenal Memory.

A story is told of an American waiter at a New York Fifth avenue hotel who can take charge of 500 hats at once and always return the right hat to the owner, though most of the five hundred owners, and of course most of their hats, are completely strange to him. The waiter says, "I form a mental picture of the owner's face inside the hat, and that looking at any hat the wearer's face is instantly brought before his mind's eye." Here, then, if the account be accurate, is an instance of a memory indefinitely strengthened by a power of visualising impressions which most men never visualise at all. This man visualised faces under them as great chess-players who play without the board visualise the pieces at a particular square; only this is a more remarkable exercise of the same power, since 500 hats must contain many nearly exact copies of each other while none of the sixty-four squares on a chess-board can confused together at all by any one man who can make himself any accurate picture of them.—London Nature.

Stephens on Webster.

A Washington letter to the Chicago News reports the Hon. Alexander H. Stephens as saying: "I think Webster was the worst slandered man I ever knew. It is the general impression in the country to day that Webster was a great drunkard. You hear it spoken of even now whenever his name is mentioned, but it is an outrageous slander. I will tell you what I know myself. For six years, while we were both here in congress, I lived next door to him. His house was as familiar to me as was my own garden. I was in there a great deal, and he was as often in mine, and in all the time of my acquaintance with him, I never saw Webster when he was in the least affected by liquor, or under the influence of it in any way. I have dined with him at his house and at mine; I have met him at dinners and affairs outside; and I never saw him in the least inebriated. I never heard of his being intoxicated but twice, and on one of those occasions—a dinner—he was said to have made a speech that was grandly eloquent. He was, as I say, one of the worst-slandered men I ever knew. Why, a friend of mine told me once that he had known Webster for 20 years, and in all that time he never saw him intoxicated."

General Joe Johnston's Retirement.

General Joe Johnston says he will retire from public life at the end of his present term. He has received many letters from Virginia; asking him to reconsider and remain in congress, but he will peremptorily decline a renomination. He could get it without even the asking, but Washington political life is not to his taste. He says he owes much of his activity and vigor in his old age to an out door life and he finds the duties of a member of congress too confining. Besides, he has no taste for it. During his brief service in congress General Johnston has made himself very popular with both parties. He is particularly popular with the army officers, for his course as a member of the Military Committee has been very liberal toward the army, and he has wielded a good deal of influence among the democrats. It is probable that General Johnston will resume insurance business in Richmond.—Cincinnati Commercial.

The World's Fables.

A Grecian sage having been consulted by a number of alleged heirs to an estate as to whether they should form an association to prosecute suits of discovery and partition, desired them to form into a faggot a number of small pieces of wood which were lying before him. "You see my children," said the wise man when they had concluded their task, "formerly you were a lot of sticks; now you are a bundle of sticks. But you are sticks all the same." Struck with the justice of the rebuke, the alleged heirs resolved to allow the agent of the association to prosecute his researches on commission, a labor which he did not fail to execute.

Moral: The meek shall inherit the earth unless they form an association to recover it.

ALE & STOUT

UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE!

The proprietors of the brewery have determined to put down prices of the above so as to command the trade of El Paso county. The prices now are as low as any beer, and the article is one hundred per cent. better, both as a beverage and health-giving properties. Ale and stout cost more to produce, and always command much higher prices; but, as we wish the public to judge for themselves, is the reason for the great reduction. Once used, always used. It is as far above lager beer as the finest imported wines are superior to domestic.

"Select List"

Geo. P. Rowell & Co's Select List of Local Newspapers

Many persons suppose this list to be composed of CHEAP, low-priced newspapers. The fact is quite otherwise. The catalogue states exactly what the papers are. When the name of a paper is printed in FULL FACE TYPE it is in every instance the BEST. When printed in CAPITALS it is the ONLY paper in the place. The list gives the population of every town and the circulation of every paper. IT IS NOT A CO-OPERATIVE LIST. IT IS NOT A CHEAP LIST. At the foot of the catalogue for each state the important towns which are not covered by the lists are enumerated. IT IS AN HONEST LIST.

An old advertiser writes: "I prefer the LOCAL LIST for the reason that, while but few persons in any particular town subscribe for a class medium (or large city weekly) nine out of ten subscribe for their local paper, and the tenth one borrows it from his neighbor."

An advertiser, who spends upwards of $5,000 a year, and who invested less than $350 of it in this list, writes: "Your Select Local List paid me better last year THAN ALL THE OTHER ADVERTISING I DID."

The rates charged for advertising are barely one-fifth the publishers' schedule. The price for single states ranges from $2 to $80. The price for one inch one month in the entire list is $650. The regular rates of the papers for the same space and time are $3,053.10. The list includes 977 newspapers, of which 193 are issued DAILY and 784 WEEKLY. They are located in 807 different cities and towns, of which 28 are state capitals, 371 places of over 5,000 population, and 485 county seats.

GEO. P. ROWELL & CO. conduct an agency for the reception of advertisements for American newspapers. The most complete establishment of the kind in the world.

Eight thousand newspapers are kept regularly on file, open to the inspection of customers.

Every advertisement is taken at the home price of the paper, without any additional charge or commission.

An advertiser in dealing with the agency, is saved trouble and correspondence, making one contract instead of a dozen, a hundred or a thousand.

A book of 120 pages, containing lists of best papers, largest circulations, religious, agricultural, class, political, daily and country papers, and all publications which are especially valuable to advertisers, with some information about prices, is sent to any address on receipt of ten cents.

Persons at a distance wishing to make contracts for advertising in any town, city, county, state or territory of the United States, or any portion of the Dominion of Canada, may send a concise statement of what they want, together with a copy of the ADVERTISEMENT they desire inserted, and will receive, by return mail, an estimate of the cost.

For such information and estimate there is no charge.

Orders are taken for a single paper as well as for a list; for a single dollar as readily as for a larger sum.

Geo. P. Rowell & Co. also publish the American Newspaper Directory (price $5), in which will be found a complete list of all American newspapers, and a Gazetteer of the towns in which they are issued.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION.

Notice is hereby given that a republican county convention will be held at Court House Hall, Colorado Springs, Colorado, on Saturday, May 22d, 1880,

at two o'clock p. m., for the purpose of electing delegates to attend the Republican State Convention, to be held at Denver, on the 25th day of May, 1880, for the purpose of electing delegates to the National Republican Convention, to be held at Chicago, on the 3d day of June, 1880; and for the transaction of such other business as may come before the convention.

The several precincts of the county will be entitled to send delegates as follows, to wit:

Precinct No.	1	1 delegate.
" "	3	3 "
" "	4	2 "
" "	5	2 "

The County Central Committee suggests that the primaries for the purpose of electing delegates to the county convention be held at the usual voting places in the several precincts on Saturday, the 15th day of May at 3 o'clock p. m.
By order County Central committee.
WILLIS SWEET, Chairman.

Croquet is now having a boom in Colorado Springs.

The excavation for the new Episcopal church at Manitou is nearly completed.

Nurseryman Clark has begun the removal of his buildings and plants to his new grounds.

Professor Loud, of Colorado College, received a radiation barometer from Washington yesterday.

Mr. J. K. Swechy accompanied a party of tourists from Manitou to the summit of Pike's Peak yesterday.

The walls of the Congregational church at Manitou are about half finished. The building will be an ornament to the town.

The collection of coins belonging to the L. L. Club, which are now displayed in E. P. Howbert & Co.'s store, attract a good deal of attention.

Strawberries in this city will ripen about two weeks later than last season. Apple trees are in bloom and many bushels of fruit will ripen no doubt.

There are two or three street crossings in the north part of town that need attention. One especially, near the upper end of Weber street, is just in the right condition to break a horses leg.

On account of the many construction trains running to the Grand Canon the Denver & Rio Grande road will not be able to furnish an excursion train to the Congregational church of this city, until about the first of June.

Ditch Commissioner Martin seems to have got the distribution of the water into a satisfactory condition. We have heard no complaints recently and from personal observation we are inclined to think that there is now no cause for complaint.

Mr. Quincy King, of the firm of King & Welch, yesterday sold his interest in the property known as the Seven Lakes to Dr. M. G. Smith, of this city, for the sum of $1,500. The contract for the completion of the road to the Lakes, will be let to-day and no money will be spared to make the property one of the most attractive resorts in the vicinity of Colorado Springs.

A man appeared at the ticket window of the depot yesterday and demanded of Mr. J. M. Ellison the agent $25 remuneration for services rendered the Denver & Rio Grande R. R. Co. His account itemized was substantially as follows: He claimed that while walking on the track near the city, he discovered that the bridge crossing the Monument was on fire and it was with the utmost exertion on his part that the flames were quenched and he deemed it no more than right that the company should allow his claim. He had evidently arrived at a novel scheme for replenishing his exausted finances. His claim was placed on file.

Fort Garland's Increased Garrison.

There is no doubt that the government is concentrating troops near the reservation. In confirmation of the facts obtained from President Tenney and published in the GAZETTE of yesterday we copy the following from the Pueblo Democrat of last Monday: "Three companies of U. S. troops passed through the city Saturday evening, bound from Cantonment, I. T., to Fort Garland, Colorado, where they will remain until the reception of further notice from the war department. The troops were under command of Col. R. J. Dodge, and the roster contained the names of 125 privates and seven commissioned officers. The companies (A, C, and D.) are from the 23d infantry and are commanded respectively by Capt. Stille, Lieut. Hay and Capt. Smith. The detachment carry with them four cars of mules and two cars of baggage and necessary provender.

The Democrat had quite a lengthy interview with Col. Dodge in regard to the destination of the troops and the probable difficulties they would have to surmount.

Col. Dodge stated during the conversation that he did not anticipate any trouble in fulfilling the instructions of the president in regard to the Ute reservation of settlers, but qualified the remark by the statement that he believed that the ultimate, full possession of this land was but a question of time.

Col. Dodge is apparently in full sympathy with the men who have risked everything to gain a foothold in this section, and although the restrictions under which he is naturally placed did not permit him to express himself fully upon the matter, we felt sure that some action will be taken shortly looking to an amicable settlement of this question which is daily looming into vast importance.

Speaking of the Indians themselves, and in regard to their probable future civilization, the colonel stated that his experience of sixteen years with them led him to finally believe that they were just as apt, just as intelligent and just as capable of instruction as any untutored race, and that he believed that the day would yet arrive when the few that remain will be better citizens than the Chinese.

Col. Dodge is a man probably 60 years of age, was in command of the forces during the Black Hills troubles with 'squatters,' and subsequently (some five years ago) was stationed at Fort Dodge. We give his views because we believe they represent the feeling of the 'powers that be,' and because we know him to be personally an officer of experience, a gentleman of intelligence in every sense of the word, and a man who knows whereof he speaks.

The troops left last evening at 9:30 for their future quarters."

Falling Down in a Fit.

A woman by the name of Errickson, whose conduct has been such as to cause her husband, Mr. T. Errickson, to take the preliminary steps to secure a divorce, fell in a fit yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock in front of Mr. F. E. Robinson's drug store on the corner of Tejon street and Pike's Peak avenue. The woman was taken into the store and every assistance rendered, but she still lay in an unconscious state. After some delay a physician was secured and pronounced the woman in an epileptic fit.

No one seemed to know where to find shelter for the unfortunate creature, and she remained in Mr. Robinson's store for nearly two hours. At last she was placed in Johnson's express wagon and the driver set out on a search for some one who had authority to give the woman an asylum. About 9 o'clock last night the city officers secured a room in the Empire House and the woman was properly cared for.

The fact that the woman was known to be of a bad character and an outcast from the house of her husband prevented any volunteering of an asylum for her aid, and thus made painfully apparent the need of a hospital or some other charitable institution in our city for such unfortunates. A delay of four hours to secure a place of refuge for a person taken dangerously ill in our streets is a disgrace to civilization and some means should be taken to obviate a repetition of such an unfortunate affair.

Organizing a Town Company.

At a recent meeting held in this city for the purpose of reorganizing the Gothic Town company there was present Dr. T. G. Horn, Mr. Charles H. White, Dr. E. A. Lee and Mr. A. L. Lawton. Dr. T. G. Horn was chosen chairman and Mr. A. L. Lawton acted as secretary. As a result of the meeting the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Dr. T. G. Horn, president; Mr. W. J. Atwood, secretary, and J. H. Fletcher, treasurer. The company have purchased considerable property and the town is located in the midst of some of the most valuable mines of the Gunnison country and at the junction of East river and Copper creek. The famous Rock creek mines are in close proximity to Gothic, where several smelters are now in course of erection. The route via Gothic City and Copper creek is considered the most feasible way of entering the Roaring Fork district.

Mr. Charles L. Davis, of the Alvin Joslin Comedy company, recovered the cane yesterday which he lost on the Manitou road, when here some three weeks ago.

REPUBLICAN PRIMARY.

Anti-Third Term Ticket Elected.

The Grant Party Made No Fight.

A Quiet Meeting and a Fair Election.

In compliance with the call published in GAZETTE the precinct caucus to elect delegates to the republican county convention met last evening in Court House Hall. The meeting was called to order promptly at half past seven o'clock by Mr. J. H. Woodgate, chairman pro tem., of the precinct committee. Mr. Woodgate briefly announced the object of the meeting and called for the nomination of a chairman. Mr. F. C. Goudy moved that Mr. L. E. Sherman be declared chairman, which was carried unanimously. Mr. Sherman took the chair, and suggested the election of a secretary. Mr. T. A. McMorris nominated Mr. Stanley Wood, who was chosen to act as secretary of the meeting. The secretary read the call, and Mr. O. T. Barker moved that the meeting proceed to ballot for delegates to the county convention in accordance with the suggestions of the call.

Mr. George H. Stewart moved to amend the call so that it should read eighteen delegates instead of fifteen, as the precinct was entitled to eighteen delegates to the county convention.

Mr. Barker accepted the amendment, and the motion as amended was carried unanimously.

Colonel De La Vergne then moved the following, which was unanimously passed:

WHEREAS, This is an assembly of the legal republican voters of the precinct; therefore,

Resolved, That none but republicans have any moral right to participate in our deliberations.

Resolved, That all resident republicans who are not now legal voters in this precinct, but who will be at the time of the next presidential election, and who intend to continue their residence here until that time, are entitled to and invited to participate in the deliberations of this meeting.

Mr. J. H. Woodgate moved that Messrs. William Stark, J. H. Van Voorhes and F. E. Dow act as judges. Mr. Woodgate's motion was carried.

Mr. George H. Stewart moved that the names of all those who offered votes be written down, so that the record of the election would be complete. This motion was unanimously adopted, and Mr. J. E. McIntyre was chosen to assist the secretary in recording the names.

The primary then proceeded to ballot.

The balloting progressed quietly until half past nine. During the first half hour the voting was rapid but during the last hour only a few votes were cast. An effort was made to enliven the proceedings while the vote was being taken with speeches. Judge Field recently of Indiana, Judge Cochrane recently of Louisville, Kentucky and Hon. Thomas C. Parrish were called out, but gracefully declined to speak.

As there was no real contest over the election of the anti-third term ticket, there was no excitement. Mr. Sullivan peddled out the "Anti Grant" tickets which were spurious. Not a name on the ticket was authorized. It was gotten up by the Grant men and distributed throughout the city. The fraud was generally understood, and the ticket had no significance, except as showing that the "anti-third term ticket" would be defeated by trickery if possible. The following were the tickets voted on:

ANTI-THIRD TERM TICKET.

Irving Howbert	Geo H Stewart
H A Risley	S E Solly
E J Eaton	Ainsworth Brown
J H Woodgate	Thomas Hughes
T A McMorris	E W Giddings

F E Dow	N Hodgman
John Potter	Abe Roberts
Charles Walker	T E Johnson
A F Goodrich	A D Craigue
J H Kerr	Walter A Smith
Joshua Sumner	J R Kennedy
Reuben Leonard	C H White

Still another ticket was voted headed "Third Term," with the name of Grant repeated 18 times underneath:

At 9:30 the balloting closed, and in a few minutes the president announced the result as follows:

Whole number of votes cast	138
Grant ticket	1
Third term ticket	1
Anti-Grant ticket	6
Anti third term ticket	130

President Sherman then announced that the primary had elected the eighteen men on the anti-third term ticket to represent this precinct at the county convention.

The republicans of this precinct prefer some other presidential candidate to Grant and have expressed this preference in the delegates elected. The Grant party thought it was unfair to have a combination ticket of the Blaine, Washburne, and Sherman men. But the Grant managers in the state left no other course. They had determined that Colorado's six delegates to Chicago should be for Grant, and the friends of the other candidates have been forced to unite and secure, if possible, a representation.

The caucus last night practically determines the character of the delegation to the state convention from this county. Manitou and Colorado City have elected delegates who are anti Grant. These two delegations with that from our precinct make just half the convention if all are present. Monument is the only precinct that has elected Grant delegates as far as heard from. Bijou Basin sends an uninstructed delegation of men who are opposed to the nomination of Grant.

OUT WEST.

Gunnison City has a Sunday school.

Dodge City is filling up with cattle dealers.

Travel into Breckenridge is estimated at fifty per day.

Denver newspaper men are to have a match game of base ball.

Pensylvania Gulch is receiving the earnest attention of prospectors just now.

The summer outdoor sports have commenced in Deadwood. One man killed and two wounded.

A western minister recently put to flight a crowd of Sunday curbstone loafers by sending the deacon out with the contribution box.

Leadville has gotten up a new railroad combination to build what will be called the Leadville, Ten Mile and Breckenridge road.

"Rigoletto" is the pseudonym of a correspondent of the Denver Republican, who is making things lively for several alleged plagiarists, literary and musical, who reside in the capital.

Undertaker Rogers, of Leadville, gives the number of deaths in that city for April as sixty-three, of which thirty-seven were from pneumonia or congestion of the lungs, two accidentally killed, and four of gun-shot wounds.

It is alleged that the school board of Canon City justly disgusted at the small attendance on school elections passed the following resolutions: "Resolved, That any man, woman or child who complains of the size, architecture, style, cost or material of the new school house, or finds fault with the teachers appointed by the board, will be hung by this vigilent committee to the highest cactus bush found in Fremont county, and his or her remains left swinging as a a warning to growlers."

Idaho Springs Mining Excitement.

The alleged strike of tellurium near Idaho Springs has excited a great deal of interest throughout the mining circles of the state. We give below the statement of the Idaho Springs Iris, for May 15th, which may be considered the most authentic information upon the subject:

"For a week past our town has been the scene of much excitement and anxiety, owing to the discovery on Tuesday by Mr. James Deaver, of genuine telluride ore, and what is claimed to be the Telluride Belt. The character and appearance of the rock in its crude state is not such as would attract attention, but when subjected to the heat of a common fire, the free gold fries out in little globules, plainly seen with the naked eye. Mr. Deaver has shown us several specimens, literally covered with gold. On Wednesday, several of our prominent citizens went down and took out the rock themselves; burnt it, and found it to be exactly like Deaver's specimens.

The discovery was made in Opal Mountain, a few rods up the gulch, and about three quarters of a mile from Idaho Springs. Sufficient development has not been made to warrant us in guaranteeing anything. We give the facts as they are. Should it prove true that we have opened the Telluride Belt, it will result in a rush to our camp and a boom even greater than we had anticipated. While our camp, now acknowledged to be the best and most reliable in the state, might be seriously injured by unnecessary "windy" reports of which the bottom might fall at any time, we are willing to give all the impetus to any new boom, and have followed this excitement from the first, and we propose to give it as it is, two hours before going to press. The ground is very hard and there is no development made deeper than four or five feet.

We give the results of assays made by Mr. A. P. Webster, assayer for the Freeland and Hukil mines. The samples from which these assays were made were taken from the Smuglar mine, owned by Mr. Deaver, and where the discovery was first made. The lowest result obtained from a sample of the entire crevice was $107.00, and the highest was $1,747.00. Now the above are the facts and they can be taken for what they are worth, but we would urge, and we believe we speak the sense of the camp, that all haste be made in developing thes properties, and ascertain the facts and true worth as soon as possible.
